Winter storm predicted

Predictions of a winter storm mix including possible heavy snow and winds are being given for the next few days, however the long-term winter forecast is for less snow than usual.

WKYT-TV Meteorologist Chris Bailey said Monday that rain in southeastern Kentucky Tuesday will give way to snow by that evening. "It will be snowing hard across most of central and eastern Kentucky shortly after dark.

"A band of moderate to heavy snow will work across central and eastern Kentucky into Wednesday morning. This band will put down the bulk of the snowfall.

"Snow showers and squalls will become widespread on Wednesday as northwesterly winds gust to 30 mph. Some of these squalls may produce whiteout conditions at times. Additional accumulations will be possible.

"Temps will stay in the 20s and wind chills may approach 0 in some cases."

According to The Old Farmer's Almanac, the long-term winter forecast for Kentucky is that it will be colder and drier than normal with below normal snowfall. The coldest periods will be in December, early January and early February with the snowiest periods in early December and early March.

Food stamp cuts not felt here

The first of up to $5 billion in cuts to the SNAP (food stamp) program began November 2. However, the two local grocery stores have not seen any negative impact from the cuts, and one has actually seen an increase in business.

Paul Shepherd, manager of the Beattyville Save-A-Lot said Monday, "I believe we have seen a pick up. People are concentrating on saving on money, and when times are tough we typically seen an increase.

"People are buying staple products and canned goods. They are being more conservative. I just see an overall increase in sales."

Jack Gross, owner of My IGA, says he has not seen a decrease in sales.

"I've not seen a difference," Gross said Monday. "However, a large percentage of our business does come from food stamps, and any cut is not good.

"Some of our vendors say they can see a difference in Eastern Kentucky, but that might be from the loss of coal jobs."

The cuts are the result of a lack of a farm bill being passed in Washington, along with the ending of some incentives.

There are roughly 47.6 million users of food stamps in the country. Half of those are working poor.

SNAP provides a family of four with $668 per month in benefits and the cuts have removed $36 of that. According to USA Today, that amounts to 21 meals per month.

This truck flipped over during an accident last Thursday. The driver, who was wearing a seatbelt, survived the wreck.

Two injured in three-vehicle wreck

Two people were transported to Marcum & Wallace Hospital following a three-vehicle accident last Thursday afternoon.

According to Lee County Sheriff Wendell Childers, a 1998 Toyota Camry, driven by Michael T. Phillips of Fairground Ridge, was going north on KY 11 when it veered across the centerline and struck a dump truck driven by Remington Capps, 19 of Hwy 708 East. The truck then slid across the highway and the tail of it hit a Chevrolet Cavalier driven by Clinton Frye, 38 of Proctor Hill Road.

Capps and Phillips were taken to the hospital with non-life threatening injuries.

Assisting Childers, and his wife Brenda at the scene were Lee County EMS, Beattyville Police Chief Greg Brandenburg and the Beattyville/Lee County Fire Department.

The accident occurred at approximately 5:45 p. m. on the stretch of road near the Lee County Little League Baseball Field.

The staff of The Beattyville Enterprise wishes a safe and happy Thanksgiving to all.

Lanham, Mays to face off in primary

Just a few people have filed for elective office in recent days.

Stephen D. Lanham has filed for the position of county judge/executive as a Republican. He will face incumbent Steve Mays in the May primary. Mays filed late Monday afternoon.

Robert Spears filed for the sheriff's job. He is a Democrat.

Coroner Earl Ray Shuler has filed for re-election, as has District 4 Magistrate Dean Noe and District 2 Constable Glenn Creech.

Also, County Attorney Thomas K. Hollon has filed for re-election.

SOAR "Shaping Our Appalachian Region"

By U.S. Rep. Hal Rogers

The urgency for hope has never been greater for southern and eastern Kentucky.

Over the last month, some 600 coal miners have been sent home – laid off or furloughed from high paying jobs in our mountains. It's the most recent painstaking round of pink slips added to the region's loss of over 6,000 coal mining jobs since 2011. Even more, economists estimate each coal mining job impacts three more local jobs. Simply put, mechanics, cooks, and truck drivers are looking for work too. And when a coal miner doesn't get paid, his truck doesn't get gas, his grocery list gets shorter, and trips to the shopping malls and cinemas in Lexington and Louisville are cut out of the budget. The entire Commonwealth needs to understand what is happening in eastern Kentucky right now, because this coal downturn will affect every community with higher energy bills and reduced opportunity.

It's the blood and sweat of our coal miners, who for decades have gone miles underground, seven days a week, to industrialize America. I'm confident that it's the same courage and perseverance that will pipe energy through the veins of this region for an economic revival.

That's why Governor Steve Beshear and I have teamed up to launch a new initiative we call SOAR – 'Shaping Our Appalachian Region.' We may be an unlikely duo, but we are united in kick-starting an economic recovery in hardest-hit eastern Kentucky. On December 9th, we begin this initiative with the SOAR Summit at the East Kentucky Expo Center in Pikeville. It's free and open to the public.

The Governor and I don't intend on being the star players of this initiative. We prefer assistant coach-status, offering guidance, encouragement, and providing specialized support to help marshal federal and state resources for an unprecedented grassroots victory.

I want to encourage the people of southern and eastern Kentucky to participate in the SOAR Summit. We will have idea kiosks throughout the Expo Center to ensure every voice is heard. For those who can't make it to Pikeville, please submit your ideas on the SOAR Facebook and Twitter pages. To reserve your free spot at the summit, visit <http://kydlgweb.ky.gov> or call the Kentucky Department for Local Government at 502-573-2382.

LEGISLATIVE UPDATE

By State Representative Toby Herald

Giving Thanks Here and Around the World on Thanksgiving

In a few days people around the nation and in Kentucky will gather to celebrate Thanksgiving. While the modern day tradition of Thanksgiving is usually marked by football, Black Friday, and leftovers, the history of this holiday is steeped in the fabric of our nation during both good and bad times.

The history of Thanksgiving in America, while not exact on the specifics, traces back to the 1600's when Puritans and Pilgrims decided to carry on the tradition of Days of Fasting and Days of Thanksgiving they had celebrated in England. The first such Thanksgiving celebration took place in Plymouth, Massachusetts.

For many years following that first Thanksgiving, the date it was marked varied from state to state. But it was President Abraham Lincoln who first sought to set a permanent date in November for the nation to give thanks during the midst of the Civil War, signing a presidential declaration in 1863. Lincoln's belief was that establishing the last Thursday in November as Thanksgiving would bring a sense of unity to the North and South, although all the states would not celebrate the holiday together until the 1870's.

The tradition of marking Thanksgiving in the United States on the fourth Thursday in November also came during a time of great strife, when President Franklin D. Roosevelt signed a joint proclamation 19 days following the attack on Pearl Harbor.

The United States is not the only country to set aside a day for Thanksgiving. In Canada Thanksgiving is held on the second Monday in October and is marked as a day of celebration for the end of the harvest season. And in Germany the holiday, which is called 'Erntedankfest,' or Harvest Thanksgiving Festival is held in early October.

In other places Thanksgiving is tied directly to the traditional holiday in our country. Japan celebrates Labor Thanksgiving Day on November 23. While the holiday was established by law during the American occupation in post-World War II, Japan's holiday is more to commemorate labor and production. Grenada also celebrates Thanksgiving Day on October 25, but their holiday is to mark the U.S. led invasion of their country in 1983.

Whether it's to celebrate freedom, liberation, or hard work Thanksgiving is a time to simply give thanks for family and friends. I hope you and yours have a Happy Thanksgiving.

DIABETES AND EYE DISEASE

While diabetes has an obvious link to "diabetic retinopathy" (damage of the small blood vessels in the retina), its association with other eye diseases may not be so obvious. In fact, the increase in cataracts and glaucoma in this country may be partly linked to the higher prevalence of diabetes. While cataracts (opacities of the eye lens) generally develop in older individuals, diabetics can develop cataracts at any earlier age. Their cataracts may also develop more rapidly than those in people without diabetes. In addition, diabetics are more likely to develop "neovascular glaucoma," which involves the formation of new blood vessels on the iris that block the normal flow of fluid out of the eye and raise eye pressure.

This helpful column on possible side effects of diabetes has been brought to you in the interest of better eye health. It is important to have regular eye exams with your ophthalmologist. At KENTUCKY EYE INSTITUTE we believe that regular eye examinations by a qualified eye care professional should be a part of your overall good health maintenance. At our office, located at 540 Jett Drive, our staff is trained to understand your needs and concerns, and we take pride in our work. Call us at 606-666-9393 for an evaluation. P.S. Diabetics are urged to visit the ophthalmologist for regular checkups in addition to managing their blood sugar levels to help avert eye complications.

We especially want to thank all the businesses and individuals who purchased our lunch. Your continued support is greatly appreciated.

A different view

By Betty Crabtree

I can hardly believe how fast time seems to go by. As of this writing, November is almost gone, and in a matter of a few days December will be here – December and Christmas.

In Galatians 4:4, one of many verses, it says, “But when the time arrived that was set by God the Father, God sent his Son, born among us of a woman, born under the conditions of the law so that He might redeem those of us who have been kidnapped by the law. Thus we have been set free to experience our rightful heritage.” (MSG)

There were those who had crept into the Colossian church who were teaching that one religion is as good as the other, deemed to be a greater enlightenment. Sounds familiar doesn’t it? Some were teaching that ‘there are many roads that lead to God.’ (That was taught for the sake of unity, it’s called syncretism. Sure sounds like something we hear today.) But Paul, in writing to the church as Colossae warned the Christians there in Verse 8, Chapter 2 (the MSG), “Watch out for people who try to dazzle you with big words and intellectual double talk. They want to drag you off into endless arguments that never amount to anything. They spread their ideas through the empty traditions of human beings and the empty superstitions of spirit beings. But that’s not the way of Christ. Everything of God gets expressed in him (Christ), so you can see and hear him clearly.”

And in Paul’s writing, he wanted the Colossian Christians to understand what God wanted them to do; asking God to make them wise about spiritual things; and praying that the way they lived would always please the Lord and honor him, so that they (and us) will always be doing good, kind things for others, while all the time they (and us) are learning to know God better and better; that they (and us) have the strength to stick it out over the long-haul: Strength that endures the unendurable and thanking the Father who makes us strong enough to take part in every thing bright and beautiful that He has for us.

As the Amplified says it, “Giving thanks to the Father, who has qualified and made us fit to share the portion which is the inheritance of the saints (God’s holy people) in the Light.” (V 12 Ch. 1)

Transportation Cabinet sets snow and ice removal priorities for 2013-14 winter season in Lee County

The Kentucky Transportation Cabinet’s Department of Highways has established priority routes for snow and ice removal for the upcoming winter season in Lee County.

The Department of Highways is responsible for keeping approximately 122 miles of state-maintained roadway in Lee County passable in inclement weather. It sets snow removal priorities according to the amount and nature of traffic on the routes within each individual county. Priority A routes include major through routes and are those most heavily traveled. Priority B routes include other important, but lesser traveled, routes in the county. Other roads fall into Priority C. In Lee County, Priority A highways are KY 11, KY 52 and a portion of KY 587.

“We have already had an accumulating snow this month, although it didn’t impact travel conditions,” said Corbett Caudill, chief district engineer for the Department of Highways District 10. “Forecasters are calling for more snow and cold weather for this winter than we’ve had in years past. The Transportation Cabinet recognizes how important roadway conditions are to Kentucky motorists. We are dedicated to keeping state highways clear and safe for travel. Our snow removal crews will work long, hard hours during the winter to keep our highways passable.”

“We ask drivers to be patient during snow removal operations,” Caudill added. “Drivers should slow down, keep an eye out for snowplows, and remember to buckle up to ensure their safety. Our crews will work as fast as they can to clear the highways.”

Again this year, District 10 will use Twitter and Facebook to provide current, updated reports on road conditions when weather-related emergencies occur. These social media outlets are available on home computers and Internet-enabled smartphones.

“Our use of social media and the Internet continues to grow and evolve,” Caudill said, “and we plan to make full use of these services this winter. We urge motorists to check these sources before they leave home to know the status of our highways during winter weather events.”

For the latest road conditions in bad weather, motorists may also dial 511 to hear traffic and travel information. Signs have been erected throughout the 10 counties of District 10 to promote the 511 service. Maps showing the snow removal priority routes may be viewed at <http://go.usa.gov/gmDe>.

THANKS

Trust – We should be reminded that we need to be thankful for trust - trust in God and trust among fellow man. Society and its economy could not function without mutual trust.

I know of a story of a restaurant that had a sign up that said, “In God we trust, but all others cash.” There is some caution in that, we need caution, but not too cautious (paranoia) to stifle progress.

Home – The home was created before the church. Be it ever so humble, there is no place like home. We all know the saying, ‘A house doesn’t make a home.’ A home is much more.

“To Adam paradise was home – To the good among his descendants’ home is paradise.” (Hare)

“The most essential element in any home is God.” (Frank Crane)

“He is the happiest, be he King or peasant, who finds peace in his home.” (Goethe)

Answers – Yes thank God we can find answers in the Bible – to life and its issues, as well as to our prayers. God does answer prayer, in his own time and way.

“God denies a Christian nothing but with a design to give him something better.” (Cecil)

Nearness – Thank God is not far off, but has chosen to be near us. The Deists said that God had created the world and left it to itself, gave it no concern or care. How wrong they have been proven. In trouble? Look to God who is near.

Kindness – Kindness has meant so much to me in my life. I can vividly remember those who have shown me kindness. They are not hard to remember, and I am so thankful for them.

An act of kindness can certainly lift you up.

Goethe said, “Kindness is the golden chain by which society is bound together.

Shakespeare said, “Kindness in a woman, not her beauteous looks, shall win my love.”

Salvation – We close by saying about all we thank almighty God and the Lord Jesus Christ for providing a way of salvation to whosoever will.

LEE COUNTY SCHOOL NEWS

Pop Tab collection

By Hallie A. Land

The Lee County Middle School recently finished their annual tradition of collecting pop tabs for the Lee County Shrine Club. The students and staff collected over 200,000 pop tabs. The pop tabs are exchanged for money and used where there is a need for the children in the Shriner's hospital.

On Friday, November 15, 2013, the Lee County Shrine Club awarded Mrs. Debra Smith and the National Junior

Beta Club with a Certificate of Appreciation. The Beta Club is very grateful for all the support from the students, families and staff that helped make this service project such a success.

Monthly attendance rewards

By Hallie A. Land

On November 22, twenty-three sixth graders, twenty-eight seventh graders, and twenty-eight eighth grade students attended the monthly attendance rewards.

Mrs. Noe and parent volunteer, Mrs. Mashburn was in charge of refreshments. Students were served popcorn and water. Several students simply wanted to socialize while other students played chess, music, and their electronic devices.

In order for students to participate in monthly attendance rewards, they must be here every day or not miss more than four class periods and if absent; student must have a doctor's note.

Beta Club induction ceremony

By Ellen Jennings and DeAnna Deaton commendable attitude.

The procession began with Mrs. Michele Estes playing Cannon in D. Inductees walked down the auditorium aisle holding a candle and to their seats. Principal, Karen Angel welcomed everyone to the ceremony and discussed the criteria for students to become members. Then, Beta Club sponsor, Debra Smith went over the service projects the students had participated in since last year and introduced the officers. Beta Club President, Gram Durbin gave a speech on the purpose of the club and being a member entailed. Vice-Presidents, Hunter Ross and Ellen Jennings gave speeches about the history of the honor society and how service and leadership serve as a guide for the

Beta Club motto, "Let Us Lead by Serving Others". Secretary, DeAnna Deaton led the seventeen new members in reciting the Oath of Office and Treasurer Haley Tipton gave the closing speech. Each student walked across the stage and received a pin, certificate, and a sticker. They were then served refreshments.

Members of the National Junior Beta Club at Lee County Middle School are challenged as a citizen of the community, state, and nation to promote the principles of honesty, justice, service, cooperation, responsibility, industriousness, humility, and charity.

Lee County healthy pet project

Dogs and cats need to be vaccinated regularly to maintain their physical health.

The Lee County Fiscal Court recently was awarded a grant for the vaccination of dogs and cats from the American Society Protection Cruelty to Animals. Funds are still available.

Applications will be accepted in the Lee County Solid Waste Office. The awards to pet owners will be on a first come, first serve basis. There will be a fee charged to each pet owner - $5 per dog and $7 per cat. This charge will be for any vaccination services performed.

If you have any questions, please call 46404107 and ask for Tina or Sharon.

HEALTH CARE PRESENTATION

Monday, December 2, 2013

Lee County Extension Service, 6:00 p.m.

Presented by -

AppalReD Legal Aid & Kentucky Equal Justice Center

Jim Thacker, Health Care Navigator, Marcum & Wallace Memorial Hospital

Please join us as Ryan Smithers of Appalred shares with us insights on the new Affordable Health Care.

- Did you know that all Kentuckians will have access to healthcare beginning January 1st?
- Did you know that on October 1st you will be able to shop for health insurance plans through an online marketplace or over the phone?

This presentation will focus strictly on the facts in order to educate you - the community - about how the new laws might benefit you and your family. This is a non-political educational question and answer session.

For additional information contact the Lee County Extension Service at (606) 464-2759!

Educational programs of Kentucky Cooperative Extension serve all people regardless of race, color, age, sex, religion, disability, or national origin. University of Kentucky, Kentucky State University, U.S. Department of Agriculture, and Kentucky Counties, Cooperating. Disabilities accommodated with prior notification.

*Shop local this holiday season, save money and help save your

The Holiday Season is right around the corner, and collectively, we are all about to spend the largest portion of our annual shopping budget! The Eastern Kentucky Local-Motive Alliance reminds you to Shift Your Shopping and consider local businesses this year when making your holiday purchases. According to the National Retail Federation, American families will spend between 7 and 8 hundred dollars on their holiday shopping. Join us in shifting these dollars to local owned, independent business in the Eastern Kentucky region. Money spent locally generates 2-3 times as much economic activity in our communities than money spent at a national chain or online. This holiday season we encourage you to take the Local-Motive Shift Your Shopping Pledge and shift at least 10% of your shopping budget to local establishments. To learn more about how you can support our local business check us out at whatsyourlocalmotive.com! Again, that's whatsyourlocalmotive.com
